Rural Rates May Be Compromised, But Not Ownership of Lines

It is a deplorable circumstance when an issue appears which threatens to divide people whose fortunes are absolutely bound together in one community — as is the case of the City of Hope and its farm territory, between whom a controversy over the rural electric rate came out in the open Wednesday.

The question of what is a fair and reasonable electric rate always is open to public debate, whether in town or country — in Arkansas or any other state. But the question as to who owns the rural electric lines within a 7-mile radius of Hope is not debatable.

Hope's municipal water & light plant owns those lines and any notion that this ownership can be disposed of either by arbitrary action of a state commission or by setting up an electric co-operative with federal tax funds is an idle threat. The income taxpayers of Hope, Arkansas, and America aren't going to sit idly by and see federal tax funds frittered away on some grandiose scheme to make competition for the property of municipal taxpayers — and we'll meet in Washington, in Little Rock, in any bureau, or any election, whoever thinks differently.

On the other hand, the justice of the rural rate structure is always open to challenge, and I wouldn't be one to say that the municipal government of Hope or any other town is always competent to fix electric rates for people living outside the corporate voting area. This writer and some other Hope men organized and financed Radio Station KXAR a few years ago, and the first several months of the air the station was charged a rural rate which penalized it a total of between $300 and $400 over what KAMD, a comparable station at Camden, Ark., paid.

Eventually that rate question was adjusted, although we never got back that $300 or $400. All rate questions can be compromised and settled, and that's true of today's dispute between the Farm Bureau and the municipal plant.

But it was the City of Hope which, after lengthy prodding by this newspaper, extended its lines and gave electric service to farmers within a 7-mile radius — when no other service was available. The City of Hope owns those lines today and no one is going to take them away from the city — neither a state commission nor a farm co-operative nor the federal government.

The same argument this writer used when demanding that the municipal plant extend its rural lines back in the late 1930's still holds today: An electric plant has an obligation to serve not only its city but its trade area, and no electric plant is secure unless it does so — for it will be instantly jeopardized if a competitive service is permitted to come right up to the city's doorstep.

I've told the story of Hope's rural line extension before but it'll bear re-telling in today's controversy. Back in the late 1930's most of rural Hempstead county was public domain as far as electric power territorial claims were concerned. There was no deadline as to where Hope service should end and private power company service begin. And the Hope government would do nothing about it.

One morning I spotted a small Pine Bluff news item in the Arkansas Gazette reporting that the late Harvey C. Couch was scheduled to come over to DeAnn, Hempstead county, to dedicate a new rural line which the Arkansas Power & Light Co. had completed. That rural line came south within a mile of Hope's existing facilities — almost to the city itself.

I advised the Arkansas Power & Light Co. The Star would cover Couch's party at DeAnn in detail. And we did. Forty-eight hours after publication of our blast of pictures and stories the city government woke up, applied to the state commission for a 7-mile territory around Hope — and that's how today's rural lines came to be established.

They are the property of the municipal plant. And they'll continue to be.

Meanwhile it's up to all of us to get this troublesome rate matter settled equitably.

Dog Vaccination Saturday, April 11

A change has been made in the dog vaccination plan it was announced today. Dr. Herbert Rogers said dogs would be vaccinated for rabies from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 11, at Elks Building and not April 17-18 as previously announced.

Pace Declares Arms Production Delayed 2 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Secretary of the Army Frank Pace Jr., told Senate investigators today there was no real production of ammunition for the Korean War until two years after the war began.

All that time, Pace said, ammunition for Korea was being withdrawn from stocks left over from World War II.

Pace, appearing before a Senate Armed Services subcommittee looking into ammunition shortages in Korea, said reports of shortages sent in by Gen. James A. Van Fleet as Fifth Army commander never reached him.

Pace also contradicted testimony yesterday by former Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett that Lovett snatched ammunition production away from the Army last November and turned control of it over to a civilian expediter.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former secretary of the Army Frank Pace Jr. told senators today he never saw any reports from Gen. James A. Van Fleet that there was an ammunition shortage in Korea.

He testified that reports — which Van Fleet said he made almost daily as commander of the U. S. Eighth Army — were not called to his personal attention.

Pace also denied that former secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett had taken control of ammunition production out of the Army's hands last November.

Lovett told a Senate Armed Services subcommittee yesterday.

Curtis Cannon Succumbs to Heart Attack

George Curtis Cannon, aged 83, member of a prominent Hope family, was fatally stricken with a heart attack about 5 p.m. Wednesday in a bus station at Texarkana. He was returning home from Arizona where he had gone for his health.

Mr. Cannon suffered two attacks. An ambulance was summoned following the first but he seemed to have recovered and insisted on continuing his trip home. A few minutes later, the second attack was fatal.

He was an attorney, a printer, and a former newspaper publisher and had served as a state representative from Hempstead. His father was the late George E. Cannon, pioneer resident and physician of Hope. For many years Mr. Cannon was connected with various newspapers in this area. He operated a weekly here in the 1920's and briefly operated the Hope Morning News in 1930. Later he was connected with a newspaper in Lake Charles, La.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. George E. Cannon of Hope, six children, Mrs. Tom Magness and Mrs. Price Brown, both of Phoenix, Ariz., Capt. George C. Cannon, Jr., and Billy Cannon, both of the Armed Forces, Ginger and Gardner of Hope, three sisters, Mrs. Monroe Scoggins of Texarkana, Mrs. Maurice M. Vick of Baton Rouge, La., Mrs. Charles B. Welch of Arkadelphia.

Funeral services were to be held at 3 p.m. Thursday at Horndon-Cornelius Funeral Home here with burial in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Barnacle on Our Civilization Is That Happy Parasite Who Rarely Labors, the Free Loader

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — The most cheerful barnacle on our civilization is the free loader.

He is the happy parasite who labors rarely or never in the vineyard, but is always Johnny-on-the-spot to share the other guy's harvest celebration. This flourishing weed in America's present garden of plenty is guided only by the golden goal — something for nothing.

Free loaders today are found in every community, in every level of society. They come in all ages, shapes, and sizes — and the usual sex.

These life-on-the-cuff artists are united by three simple beliefs: 1. "This is a free country, isn't it?" 2. "The best things in life are free." 3. "A poor friend is a poor friend indeed."

Everybody is victimized now and then by amateur free loaders, such as relatives but the natural enemies of the true pros are the boys who do and newly-rich, unfortunates who need experienced help in getting rid of their cash.

Girl 11, Tells of Killing Young Cousin

MADERA, Calif. (UP) — An 11-year-old girl said today she bludgeoned her baby cousin to death with a twisting baton because "she tore up my school books."

"I don't know why I did it except Yolanda tore up my school books and broke her feeding bottle," Margaret Perez said.

District Attorney Walter Chandler said the young school girl admitted she beat the baby to death.

The baby, Yolanda Perez, was pronounced dead on arrival at Madera hospital Monday after her bruised body was discovered by a neighbor. An autopsy showed she died of a fractured skull.

Chandler said Margaret apparently was aggravated because she had to take care of her cousin instead of being able to practice baseball with other girls.

"I just picked up my baton and began beating her," the 11-year-old girl said. "I didn't mean to hurt her that much."

The victim's mother, Mrs. Esther Perez, 24, told officers she was downtown shopping when the incident occurred.

She said Margaret had been living in her home for several months.

Authorities were unable to determine immediately where Margaret's parents were.

Chandler said it had not been decided yet whether a murder charge would be filed against the young girl. He said juvenile court authorities would decide the disposition of the case.

Draft Board Seeks Whereabouts of Inductee

Selective Service Local Board No. 29 is seeking information regarding the whereabouts of Carl B. Bell, white recruit who failed to report for induction on April 8, 1953.

This registrant's last address was listed as Hope, Rt. 1. If anyone knows his whereabouts or any of his people please contact the draft board at Hope City Hall.

Members of the board are L. E. Ashin, Andy Andrews and H. A. Davis.

Manhattan can fatten himself by introducing into cafe society a prestige starved, retired chicken rancher with an appetite for the world of dazle.

All the chicken rancher has to do is reach for the tabs, "lend" the free loader folding money regularly, and soon he is a big-name in cafe society. In this circle all you need to get ahead is to carry a loaded pocketbook and refrain from picking your teeth in public — at least until after midnight, and then nobody cares what you do.

But a real high-class free loader knows to sponge off an uncouth chicken rancher because after all he's giving the sucker something back for his dough recognition.

It is a matter of opinion whether the male or female free loader has it better.

Women are notoriously quick to get the deep freeze on free loaders. They are actually adept at sizing up a man's loader, but they don't mind taking him now and then for the pleasure of his company and the sake of his dark sensitive skin.

Some of them even permit a free loader to spray them for a considerable distance.

U. S. Promises to Consider Nazi Pardons

WASHINGTON (UP) — German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today a U. S. promise to consider pardons for 300 Nazi war criminals today as he wound up his Washington talks with a final meeting with President Eisenhower.

Informed sources revealed Adenauer was told this country would review the cases of the Nazis it still holds to see if any now seem to call for clemency.

The German leader emphasized the importance of such a review because of strong pressure at home against the continued imprisonment of the war criminals.

It was believed the subject would be touched on in a final communique on the talks to be released some time after the White House session.

Authorities emphasized, however, that the United States would be bound under present agreements to consult Russia, Britain and France on any move to free convicted Nazis. These countries share in the occupation of Germany.

During his three-day visit here, the 77-year-old Adenauer said the Soviet Union still constitutes a real threat to world peace and that the West must continue its defense buildup. For its part, he said, West Germany would complete ratification of the six-nation European army plan.

He said Margaret had been living in her home for several months.

Authorities were unable to determine immediately where Margaret's parents were.

Chandler said it had not been decided yet whether a murder charge would be filed against the young girl. He said juvenile court authorities would decide the disposition of the case.

Broilermen Told Position Is Strong

Broiler growers were advised to produce for a market rather than to produce to be marketed by H. Alp, Director of the Poultry Department, American Farm Bureau Federation, Chicago.

About 150 broiler producers, processors, retailers, suppliers and educational leaders participated in the first Broiler Marketing Clinic sponsored by the Arkansas Agricultural Extension Service on the campus of Arkansas Polytechnic College at Russellville yesterday.

Hempstead county broiler producers attending the clinic were: J. W. Reilly, Harold Allen, R. W. McCormack and Sterling Cook. County Agent Oliver L. Adams attended with the county group.

The producers were advised that the broiler industry was in about as strong a position economically as has been the situation for a long time. The situation will continue good as long as producers look after their overall business with particular emphasis on cutting costs and marketing methods.

The broiler grower produces the lowest cost high protein meat for the consumer. The margin of profit on broilers is expected to be cut about half because of the competition of western areas of production.

The continued close relationship between producers, processors and retailers was shown in moving to consumers an increasing volume of broilers. The place of leadership and attitude of retailers in moving excessive amount of broiler meat during the recent low market was shown by Marvin Vines of the Extension Service Marketing Division in Kansas City and Clay Ross of A&P Chain Stores in Nashville, Tenn.

The Hempstead county group inspected the broiler processing plant of Fox Deluxe Foods, Inc. at Dardanelle. This plant processes 2100 broilers per hour or 16,800 per day. The capacity of the plant is now in the process of being doubled.

Although human breath usually is germ free, the act of coughing, sneezing, speaking or even whispering can spray germs for a considerable distance.

Court Orders Trial in Race Track Case

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today ordered trial of a suit which seeks to prevent an election on whether horse racing should be allowed in St. Francis County. Anti-track forces thus won an apparently delay in the election, which was set for May 2.

The decision reversed St. Francis Chancellor A. L. Hutchins who had dismissed the complaint with out trial.

The countywide referendum was called after petitions circulated by the St. Francis Valley Turf Association Inc., were declared sufficient by the county election committee.

In view of the Court's action to day it seemed unlikely that final decision could be reached before the scheduled date. Especially as whatever the chancellor's ultimate decision it probably will be repealed.

Home Towns of Forrest City, a one-time chairman of the state racing commission, and two other St. Francis residents filed suit to prevent the county election board from holding the election.

The suit — a recent development in the years old fight on establishment of a track in eastern Arkansas — charged that names of 150 persons were placed

Blames Security for Holding News

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department insisted today that military security, not any desire to suppress information about the progress or shortcomings of the armed forces, is responsible for a new stringent series of orders.

That explanation was given by public relations officers to reporters' inquiries about a Pentagon decision yesterday to ban further public demonstrations of new weapons. That order, which stopped Army plans to show its new "Nike" anti-aircraft guided missile later this month, followed by a few days two sharply worded directives from Secretary of Defense Wilson.

In one of them, Wilson threatened disciplinary action, including court-martial for military personnel or civil suits for civilian employees, who disclose matters the Pentagon considers "classified." In the other, he ordered that "important policy documents" be kept only in the hands of officials who need to know of their contents.

Yesterday's terse Pentagon announcement said: "The Department of Defense announced today that, for reasons of economy and security, public demonstration of important new weapons and equipment are not in the public interest at this time."

The Army then cancelled a planned trip by a number of members of Congress and news representatives to Burlington, N. C., and White Sands, N. M., to see the manufacture and a test of the "Nike" missile with which the Army claims to be able to knock down bombers a dozen or more miles away, despite the speed or maneuvering of the aircraft.

Department spokesmen said that at such demonstrations every effort is made to allow the public to see only what is not actually secret, but the chance always exists of an intentional disclosure.

SW Bankers Discuss Farm Loan Problems

Some sixty bankers from this section of Arkansas held a panel discussion here yesterday on agriculture loans and prospects in the future.

The meeting was sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis which sent two representatives, the State Banking Association and the University of Arkansas Extension Service.

Participating on the panel were Ray Miller of the Federal Reserve Bank, Thomas C. Wilson, Conway banker, a representative of the State Association's agricultural committee, Harold Meazel and Mr. Vines of the Extension Service. Jeff Burnett, Jr., DeQueen banker, Homer Purdie, farmer of Prescott, Alvin Stone, Arkadelphia banker.

Following the meeting the group, through courtesy of the two Hope banks, toured the city. At a dinner meeting last night State Bank President Donald Barger presided. Slides of the Livestock Industry in New Zealand were shown.

Base Go-Ahead Premature, Says Harris

WASHINGTON April 8 (AP) — Rep. Harris (D-Ark.) said today he does not regard a recent letter from Air Force officials as necessarily giving a construction go-ahead for a proposed jet bomber base north of Little Rock.

Harris, who advocates utilization of an unused base at Hope, Ark., rather than construction of a new base said it is his understanding "that the review of the military budget has not been completed."

Major Gen. E. L. Batton of the Air Force notified Harris last week that "the review of the Air Force construction program for an air base near Little Rock now has been completed by the Department of Defense" and that "all the construction projects planned for that installation" were approved with one minor exception.

Harris said he regarded this as meaning the construction would proceed as planned before an administration order for review of the essentially of all construction projects halted the work.

Harris, who is in Florida, tested a statement through his office in which he said the Eaton letter "is only a confirmation of the planning of the proposed project and not necessarily the go-ahead signal for construction."

All the letter states, he said, "is what we have known for some time and is a part of the expansion program of the Air Force."

It is my understanding that the review of the military budget has not been completed and the secretary of defense has not made his report," Harris said. "Furthermore, the Armed Services Committee of the House has requested the Air Force to present a report to justify its position economically in the construction of the Little Rock base. The chairman will advise me when this report is received and of any developments affecting the decision as to where the base is to be established."

Joe was anxious to get the snake as the only coral the zoo has. He hopes to return it to Hope this fall in the G. E. Commission exhibit.

'Killer' Has Inside in Red Power Fight

By JOHN H. MARTIN

International News Service Foreign Director

Levinoff, Berlin, the "killer" in pinpointing begins to look like the top dog in the fierce battle for control inside the Kremlin.

Among the significant facts emerging from the strange flood of news out of Moscow are these: Premier Georgi Malenkov, the 250-pound disciple of Stalin is not getting any adulation in the doctored Communist press.

As noted by former Red Army Gen. Alexander Borzhin, there has been only one picture of Malenkov printed in the Soviet press in the last two weeks of March. Malenkov is just a name in the press to any extent, but in the exposure of the "modest number plot" Beria is emerging as the champion because it is his security ministry police which suddenly are pictured as guardians of civil liberties.

Before the meeting started, vice bloc delegates remained pretty secretive about the plot. But there was general feeling would introduce some change in the light of Russia's new foreign policy and the prisoner talks in Korea.

Issues May Be Formally Signed on Friday

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — The Communists unexpectedly agreed this afternoon to all major points in an Allied proposal for exchanging sick and wounded prisoners. Agreement may be signed tomorrow.

Agreement on the mechanism for trading disabled prisoners during a meeting of staff officers which followed the regular meeting of liaison groups.

If an agreement is reached tomorrow, exchange of wounded prisoners could begin in 10 days. The Reds refused earlier today that they would not more than 800 Allied prisoners — including probably more than 125 Americans.

The Communist staff officers lived up to their promise and asked earlier by the Allies to delegate. The agreement on the size and operation of the exchange at 20 days and agreement becomes effective.

A formal signing of the exchange of prisoners would follow. The exchange of prisoners would follow the regular meeting of liaison groups.

A highly placed American said the Communists agreed to exchange prisoners.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK — Quiet trading today accompanies a lower tilt in the Stock Market.

After a two-day rise, the market appeared to run out of buying power.

The market opened higher by a small margin, but gradually it retreated until a definite downward developed. Prices spread out over a range of a point either way with minor slips predominating.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK — Cotton futures were irregular today. Switching from old crop May to later months was the feature, with new crop deliveries drawing support from that type of switching operations. Selling of old crop months was influenced by poor demand for spot cotton.

Late afternoon prices were 38 cents a bale higher to 30 cents lower than the previous close. May 33.10, July 33.31 and Oct. 33.20.

U. S. Records Inaccurate, Byrd Declares

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), said today government manpower records are "so inaccurate" it is impossible to tell how many persons are on the federal payroll.

He called on President Eisenhower to take "immediate steps" to rectify the situation.

The Virginian, only Democrat holding a committee chairmanship in the Republican-controlled 83rd Congress, issued a statement apologizing to Congress because he found himself unable to vouch for government personnel figures carried in the monthly report of his Senate House Committee on non-essential federal expenditures.

Byrd said that his report came printed at best an educated guess. It showed that the Eisenhower administration reduced the federal payroll by 7,000 persons in February, its first full month in office. A decrease of 8,522 in the Defense Department's civilian payroll was partly offset by a gain of 652 in other executive departments. The official payroll total was 2,466,954 on March 1. (The Civil Service Commission issued the same figures earlier.)

Byrd said faulty personnel accounting methods "were inherited by the new administration."

Truman Visits Famed Volcanoes

HONOLULU (UP) — Former President Harry S. Truman paid a flying visit to three of Hawaii's famed volcanoes yesterday and was welcomed to Hilo by thousands of cheering admirers.

Truman flew over Haleakala in a Navy transport plane, ate lunch at an inn on the slopes of Mauna Loa and looked into a crater atop Kilauea.

The former President returned to his Coconut Island vacation retreat last night.

Eisenhower Leary About Korean Peace

WASHINGTON (UP) — The White House said today the Eisenhower administration "has never reached any conclusion that a permanent division of Korea is desirable or feasible."

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty also said the administration has never concluded that such a division would be "consistent with the decisions of the United Nations."

Hagerty at his daily news conference said further that no consideration has been given by the administration to establishment of a trusteeship for Formosa.

Hagerty brought up the subject by referring to a Washington dispatch in today's New York Times.

The story said the Eisenhower administration is "willing to accept a settlement in Korea based on a boundary at the narrow waist of the peninsula," about 90 miles north of the present battle line.

The story also said the administration "is casting about for a solution that would assure an independent Formosa," the island stronghold of the Chinese National government.

"A possibility being considered," the Times said, "is a United Nations trusteeship for that strategic island, with the creation of a republic of Formosa as the ultimate goal."

Hagerty said he had been asked for comment on the story. And in response he was making this statement.

"The reported administration policy on Formosa and Korea is without foundation of fact."

"No consideration has been given by the administration to a United Nations trusteeship for Formosa."

"Likewise, the administration has never reached any conclusion that a permanent division of Korea is desirable or feasible, or consistent with the decisions of the United Nations."

"Mexico" Theme of Missionary Program
Our Neighbor "Mexico" was the theme of the missionary program presented Monday afternoon by Jo Seagars Circle of the First Baptist Church.

The table was covered with a Mexican cloth and held its centerpiece a low Mexican pottery bowl filled with vari-colored flowers. Also placed on the table was an open Bible from which fell vari-colored ribbon streamers holding the subject topics to be discussed. As each part was given it was taken from the streamer and placed in a "Horn of Plenty" which depicted the shape of Mexico. Articles on the table further stressing the Mexican theme were a straw donkey, and Mexican Indian dolls.

Each member of the Jo Seagars Circle was in Mexican dress. Mrs. Dannie Hamilton, program leader, handed out colorful Mexican programs. The following program was presented:

"Mexico, Country and People" — Mrs. Charles Reynerson
"My Little Friend Victor" — Mrs. Carlton King.

"The Place of Women in Mexico" — Mrs. Walter Miller, Jr.
"Auxiliaries of Women Mission Union" — Mrs. Herman Robinson

Mrs. P. J. Holt, presided.

DOROTHY DIX

Woman's Facial Defect

Dear Miss Dix: Some of us are born with beauty, some are not, and I'm one of the latter. My features aren't bad with the exception of my nose which is quite prominent. I have always been self-conscious about it, and have been subjected to many taunts. I'm in my late thirties now and the defect seems to bother me more as I grow older. Young people, especially, seem to find my nose amusing and their rudeness is making me so uncomfortable that I hate to go out.

I should be very happy, as I have a fine husband and nice children. I'd like to have plastic surgery done, but it is so very expensive.

Answer: I'm sure you're making much more of a slight defect than it warrants. Since you have a good husband, have a nice family and home, you have achieved the most important things in life. Doesn't the thoughtlessness of others seem trivial in comparison?

As young people aren't accustomed to feasting their eyes on undiluted beauty all day, I'm sure your nose attracts far less attention than you imagine. Proper make-up, and the right type of hat, will tend to detract attention from the prominent feature.

Too Sensitive
If you are interested in plastic surgery, why not investigate its possibilities instead of dismissing the whole idea with the shrug of being "too expensive"? You live in a city noted for its fine hospitals. Find out which one specializes in this type of work, and make an appointment to present your problem.

coll, Cline Franks, Hope, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Wright of Hope announce the arrival of a son, William Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Allen of Hope announce the arrival of a daughter, Mary Gwen.

Branch Hospital
Admitted: Mrs. Lloyd Jones, Rt. 4, Hope, Mary Woods Duncan of Lewisville.

lem. The fee may not be as large as you expect.

First and foremost, however, you must not be so sensitive about your appearance. As you say, everyone is not born beautiful, but most people do learn to live with their defects. In fact, as a glance over a show-business roster will show you, some folks have become famous by turning physical flaws into assets. Large noses, mouths, or ears are not scarce among the great of the amusement world. Surely, these folks didn't go through childhood without hearing taunting remarks. However, rising above such trivialities, they achieved the heights of stardom. No one expects to become a television star, but you can most assuredly ignore the rudeness of a few outsiders and take pleasure in the admiration of your family.

Dear Miss Dix: We are two sisters 19 and 21. Our mother has made a ruling that twice-a-month dance dates are sufficient for girls our age. Even these must be double dates. Do you think she's being fair to us?

Answer: You certainly should be entitled to more liberal dating privileges. If your mother can't trust girls of your age, when does she expect to trust you? Since you are both working, surely she must realize that you have grown past the stage of constant chaperonage. Could you get some friend or relative to intercede for you?

Dear Miss Dix: My girl friend and I disagree on the closing of a letter. We both write to servicemen whom we have known from childhood. We regard them just as friends, but she signs her letters, "Love, so and so," while I feel this may be misunderstood.

Answer: "Love" is a closing to a letter, even to a friend, is quite commonplace and usually carries no particular significance. It is quite possible, though, that the boy might misunderstand, so to prevent future hard feelings, it would be

Fairy-Tale Royal Wedding Told

LUXEMBOURG, Luxembourg — a fairy-tale royal wedding united the reigning hostess of two-thirds of the Benelux countries today before nobility of 11 European nations and some 140,000 more persons than the church could hold.

Marines Claw Way Back on Carson Hill

BY AN CARTER
HOPE, Ark. — American Marines clawed their way back to the top of Carson Hill today after 300 Chinese overran the strategic West Korean outpost in a pre-dawn assault.

There was no report whether the Chinese who took the first assault in their bunkers or whether the hill. The number of Chinese was small.

illery and mortar fire, the Reds swarmed up the hill and into Marine defenses. Chinese in a column were knocked out in the first 10 minutes, but observers on nearby hills watched Marines battling Reds hand to hand, the Eighth Army said.

A 1st Marine Division officer estimated that 220 Chinese were killed or wounded.

A Marine relief force started inching its way up the shell-pitted slope at 8 a.m. and 35 minutes later the hill was reported recaptured.

Rent Control Extension Is Approved

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON, Mo. — A five-month extension of federal rent controls has won the approval of the Senate Banking Committee but it faces a rocky path toward final congressional passage.

The committee pulled a surprise yesterday by voting 10-5 to accept President Eisenhower's recommendation for continuance through Sept. 30 of the ceilings which cover 5,000,000 housing units throughout the nation. These represent about one-third of all rental units.

At the same time, it approved 12-5 a controversial provision to give the President power to freeze all prices, wages and rents in a war crisis.

Those were the two major sections in a package economic controls bill on which the committee finished action. It also would extend powers which the administration has asked to continue the mobilization buildup.

Senators Bricker (Ohio) and Bennett (Utah) who were in the minority on rent controls extension and the 90-day freeze in the committee votes, said today they would fight to knock them out on the floor.

Store Owners Loses Boxing Decision

BALTIMORE, Mo. — Max Cooper, who used to "do a little boxing," lost his first decision yesterday in six starts against an assortment of unknown, murderous thugs intent upon robbing him.

A 60-year-old gentleman of firm resolution, Cooper has been wounded twice in the last 12 years by robbers who keep coming back — evidently it seems to Max and his wife Freda.

"I'll tell you the truth, we've stopped counting," Mrs. Cooper said last night.

But the records show at least six armed holdup attempts in their retail liquor store since 1940. The gray-haired Cooper has fought them off successfully five times, using weapons ranging from bottles of liquor to guns.

Twice he has been shot in the arm, his wife was once wounded in the back.

Yesterday's visitor got away with $80 and escaped Cooper's vengeful fists.

Hendrix Trackster Giving Notice

ARKADELPHIA — Bad news for Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference sprinters — Arthur Sears of Hendrix is showing strong signs of maintaining his monopoly on their specialties.

The flying redhead won the 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes in a triangular meet here yesterday — just as he did in the AIC meet last spring.

But the former Hot Springs athlete's 164 points — including his winning anchor flight in the 440 relay — weren't enough to give Hendrix the meet here.

Mississippi College of Clinton, Miss., scored top honors with 79 points. Hendrix was second with 53 and Ouachita last with 41.

Both Branch Rickey, vice president and general manager of the Southern Association, and Joe L. Brown, president of the local club, agree on this. From recent developments, including eight players left here by the Pirates on their visit this week, the local club will be stronger than last season.

Brown says the pitching will be 50 per cent better than this time a year ago. Rickey, on his visit said:

"I should be a disappointed fellow if New Orleans is not a pennant contender and I look for them to finish 1, 1 or 3. We have enough good players in the Pittsburgh organization to make New Orleans a contending team all season."

With that kind of a sendoff, plus the statement by Fred Haney, manager of the Pirates, that "I believe the club that beat New Orleans will win the pennant in the Southern League," the Pels will take the field for the opening at Birmingham Friday, April 10, with high expectations.

The Pirates returned Ed Wolfe, who won 15 and lost 13 for the Pels last season, plus Richard Manville, a 6-foot 4-inch right-hander who was obtained from the Chicago Cubs in the deal for catcher Clyde McCullough.

Holdovers from last year's staff are Lee Anthony, Preston Elkins, Don Cochran and Lenny Yochim. New additions include Bob Garber, who had a great season at Charleston before entering the service after the 1950 campaign.

Manager Danny Murlaugh plans to carry 12 pitchers.

The catchers will be Mel Brookie and Bill Hall.

Except at shortstop, the infield is stronger. Al Grunwald, with the Pels in 1950 and back from the service, will be at first base. Veteran Lou Klein will be at second and Emanuel Senerchia, just turned over by the Pirates, will start at third. Mike Turturro, who won 15 and lost 13 for the Pels last season, will start at shortstop just before the opening.

The Pirates left Brandon Davis and Gail Henley here as outfielders. Jim Monahan, former Rutgers fullback, will be the third outfielder and John Bass, who hit .340 for Waco last year, the other.

Pittsburgh took up all three Pels as outfielders from last year — Frank Thomas, Felipe Montemayor and Paul Smith.

Negro Hurlers Work Out at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS — The Negro pitchers who figured in Hot Springs' expulsion from the Cotton States League "showed their wares in a spring training intrasquad game here yesterday.

Jim Tugerson hurled three hitless innings and struck out five. Brother Leander, opposing Jim on the mound, yielded four hits in three frames.

Meanwhile, Lewis Goltz, co-owner of the Bathers, said he expects the club to be reinstated in the League and to open the season April 21 with the Tugersons on the roster.

Signing of the Florence Villa, Fla., Negroes prompted the Cotton States League, embracing Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi, to revoke Hot Springs' franchise last Monday.

Hot Springs appealed the action to George Trautman, president of the National Association of Minor Leagues, and Goltz said Trautman is expected to hand down a ruling over the coming week-end.

Although the sun is about 93 million miles from the earth, the distance varies during each year because the orbit of the earth is not exactly circular.

Due to the absence of the general president, Mr. Epps, Mrs. Harvey Washington, presided over the city-wide singing which was very successful. The two choirs were Prescott and Washington. The next meeting will be held at the Church of God in Christ Sunday, May 9, at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Emma Matlock, aged 80, died at her home in Murfreesboro, Sunday, April 6. Funeral services will be held Saturday.

Carpenter, McHan Bat Porks to Win

FAYETTEVILLE — Coach Bill Ferrell had figured all through pre-season practice that a pair of star football backs would provide much of the University of Arkansas baseball team's punch this year.

Lamar McHan and Lewis Carpenter proved their mentor right yesterday as they slugged the Razorbacks to a 9-4 season opening victory over Buena Vista College of Iowa.

McHan, a junior who was All Southwest Conference quarterback in 1951 and plays rightfield in baseball, hit two home runs and drove in three rallies.

Carpenter, a senior who's a fullback in football and a cracked our homer, a double and a single to push across three more runs.

Another grid back, Southpaw Bob St. Pierre was Arkansas' starting and winning pitcher. He yielded one run in five innings.

The Razorbacks will go after their second and third triumphs in a doubleheader at Northwest Oklahoma State, Tahlequah, Saturday.

Southern Gets Ready for Opening

By The Associated Press

The season for spring training and exhibition play neared the end today as Southern Association teams got set for opening games of their 1953 schedule.

Some of them suffered defeat at the hands of major league opponents yesterday.

Birmingham's Barons lost to the Cincinnati B team, 12-7, at Gadsden, Ala.

The Little Rock Travelers took a 10-0 beating from the St. Louis Cardinals at Little Rock.

A 19-hit barrage gave the Chicago White Sox a 14-0 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

The Memphis Chickies were beaten, 10-3, by Toledo of the American Association at Memphis.

The Nashville Vols. had their final workout yesterday. They boarded a train today for Little Rock to play the Travelers in Friday's opener. Manager Hugh Poland said either Jim Constable or Jack Harshman will be the starting pitcher.

New Orleans closed its exhibition series with a 2-1 victory over Loyola University at New Orleans. New Orleans and Birmingham meet in a league opener at Birmingham Friday.

The Mobile Bears broke camp at Vero Beach, Fla., yesterday and enroute for Atlanta to meet the Crackers Friday.

The Chattanooga Lookouts worked out last night in preparation for Friday's game with Memphis. Manager Cal Ermer said left-hander Frank Papius will start for the Lookouts.

Memphis plays its last exhibition game tonight with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Johnson Resigns at El Dorado

EL DORADO — Woody Johnson has resigned as athletic director and head coach at El Dorado High School, indicating he acted as the result of pressure "from a certain group of boosters."

Johnson, who announced his resignation yesterday, said today he had not obtained another position yesterday, said today he had not obtained another position.

In two seasons under Johnson, El Dorado won 12 football games, lost nine and tied one. He would have had a team of mostly seniors the next fall. The former Parkin, Ark. athletic star took over basketball coaching this year and led the Wildcats into the state tournament for the first time in 11 years.

El Dorado's 1953 track and field team, which Johnson helped coach, recently won the Big Seven Relays.

Johnson, whose resignation will be effective June 30, was freshman football coach at Furman University before coming to El Dorado.

Ex-AIC Champs Find Going Tough

admire as a fellow craftsman a man who is able to wheedle his way through life.

The feminine cage artist, of course, has a big edge when it comes to making dupes out of malodores. Who expects a pretty lady to buy her own drinks or pay for her meals? What well-heeled guy minds a loan to tide her over the first of the month while she waits for the right job that somehow never comes along?

Actually the gal probably doesn't think of herself as free lunching. She just calls it a kind of courtship, known by some cynics as the oldest form of free loading.

But a real lady free loader is no gold digger who trades her favors for cash. She is rigorously virtuous. Her motto is still "something for nothing," not "something for something." And any chump with a padded wallet who makes the mistake of marrying one of these dames soon finds that his reward is — exactly nothing, with blonde hair. She regards him as Services subcommittee yesterday he "lost patience" with the Army's handling of the ammunition shortage and gave control of the problem to a civilian assistant.

Pace challenged this statement by saying: "The secretary did not at any time take the ammunition problem out of the hands of the Army."

Lovett told the senators there was an ammunition shortage and assigned the blame to the "Army as a whole." He gave them a story of long, red tape delays.

Yesterday, Sen. Byrd (D-Wa.) denounced the Army's system of preparing ammunition contracts as "the most colossal and terrible thing I've ever known."

"Sometimes," he said, "we've got to find out who's responsible." Lovett's angry outburst came after he heard that an ammunition order traveled 10,000 miles, passed through the hands of 42 agencies and more than 200 individuals and required 287 days — nine months — of processing just to reach the contract stage.

Senators were expected to quiz Pace about Lovett's assertion that as defense secretary he tried to get increased production out of the Army for more than a year with no success. Finally, Lovett said, he took production control from the Army and gave it to a civilian assistant.

Vnn Fleet, retired former commander of the U. S. Eighth Army, touched off the inquiry when he testified last month there was a serious and sometimes critical shortage of ammunition during all the 22 months he was in Korea.

The Reds turned down a U. N. attempt to get them to increase the number of POWs they said they would turn over to the Allies. The Reds stuck to their figure of 600 including probably not more than 125 Americans.

The Allies have said they are ready to send back 5,000 disabled Red captives, 5,100 North Koreans and 700 Chinese.

Rear Adm. John C. Daniel, chief U. N. liaison officer, said he tried three times in the meeting at Panmunjom Thursday to get the Communists to sign the agreement. They wouldn't get out their pens, he said, but they told him they

If a balding male one can charm a wealthy lady sucker into buying him a toupee, if a wrinkled female one can sweet-talk an addled headed sugar daddy into staking her to a face lifting operation — well, brother, that is genius made visible.

Neither will ever had to face the greatest disaster of their trade — honest work. They will successfully free load the rest of their lives, and ride grails to the cemetery.

7 British Freed, Chinese Says

TOKYO — The Pyongyang daily late tonight said the North Korean government had freed seven British subjects for repatriation. Russian representatives at a meeting in Southern Manchuria.

Radio Press monitors said the broadcast identified three of the released as Vivian Holt, British Minister to Seoul at the start of the war; George Blake, vice consul; and Philip Dane War correspondent for the London Observer and International News Service.

Other names were not available. The broadcast listed them as the first secretary of the British Legation in Seoul, two missionaries and a Salvation Army worker.

on the petitions for the election by some one other than the persons themselves.

Removal of these 150 names would reduce the number of signatures below the total necessary to obtain an election.

The suit contended that to pay for the election would be an "illegal exaction" of public funds and therefore prohibited under the constitution.

The Turt Association intervened and filed a demurrer to the complaint. A demurrer is a technical plea but which says that even though the complaint might be true it still does not constitute a cause of action.

Hutchins sustained the demurrer and dismissed the suit. Today's prevailing opinion, written by Associate Justice George Rice Smith, said, "We think the demurrer should have been overruled for the complaint states a cause of action. The statute requires that 15 per cent of the voters petition for an election of this kind. The demurrer admits the insufficiency of the petition in this case."

LITTLE ROCK — The Arkansas Supreme Court today ordered trial of a suit over validity of signatures calling an election on a proposed horse race track in St. Francis County.

The decision overruled Chancellor A. L. Hutchins who had dismissed a complaint of Homer Towns and others on a technicality.

$4 Pill Can Give A-Bomb Protection

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP) — A big fat pill costing about $4 probably would save you from radiation sickness or death from an A-bomb, scientists said today.

You'd have to take it, though, just before the bomb went off.

The king-size pill looks like the best practical bet so far to guard against radiation, the new element in A-bombs as compared with ordinary bombs.

The prospect was described today by scientists speaking in a news conference of presenting reports to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

The pill would weigh almost two ounces, for a 150-pound person. It would be smaller for someone smaller, still bigger for a fatty.

It would be made of cysteine, one of the amino acids or building blocks of proteins such as muscle, fat, nerves and other tissues.

Given to animals an hour or two before they're exposed to lethal X-rays, cysteine saves most of them. It apparently would do the same for humans.

July is named for Julius Caesar and August for the Roman emperor, Augustus.

Arsenic is a metal.

Ellender Against Flood Fund Cut

SHREVEPORT, La., (AP) — Sen. Ellender (D-La.) told the Red River Valley Association convention that he believed the national budget could be balanced without cutting funds for flood control work.

"We cannot continue to let the threat of emergency after emergency prevent us from undertaking those projects necessary for the continued well being of our nation and the prosperity of our people," he declared.

Sen. Long (D-La.) was among the speakers to address the convention. Long attacked waste by military authorities and said the military budget could be sliced by 20 per cent without injuring national defense.

Fred Webb, a Shreveport planter, was elected to his third term as president. Other officers re-elected were:

J. R. Mathias of Shreveport, executive vice president for Louisiana; A. G. Mayse of Paris, Tex., executive vice president for Texas; B. R. McCarty of Texarkana, Ark., executive vice president for Arkansas; and W. E. Schooner of Hugo, Okla., executive vice president for Oklahoma. Val Murrell of Shreveport was re-elected treasurer.

Husband to Hang for Slaying Wife

BALTIMORE, (AP) — George Edward Grammer today was sentenced to hang for the "almost perfect" slaying of his wife last summer so he could marry a pretty U.N. stenographer in New York.

Judge Herman M. Moser, who convicted Grammer of first degree murder after a sensational trial last October said Grammer not only proceeded by a cunning scheme to murder his wife but also developed a dastardly plan to make her death look accidental.

Per capita consumption of sugar in Hawaii is 146 pounds per person per year compared with 130 pounds in Australia, 100 pounds in Canada and 94 pounds in the United States.

Alles Repulse Red Drive for Key Positions

By ROBERT UDICK

HOPE, Ark. (UP)—United Nations troops today turned back a Communist drive for key positions they apparently held during an armistice.

Troops along the battle line pushed back assaults on Hill and other key U.N. positions. U.N. troops also blasted three Communist tanks and knocked out a radio station on the peninsula.

Communists ran into difficulties in the Delston, too. They failed an important offensive in the Hanan River. The Central front from there only to lose it after a day of combat.

Troops held a firm grip on the Texas coast of the Puk. After taking the South Koreans last Sunday.

also maintained command of the Delston. They seized on March 24. They caused some Allied of the Delston. They were in the event a "buffer" zone.

Shortage of Ammo Probe Is Pushed

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators pushed an inquiry into reported ammunition shortages in the Korean War today even though the shooting might possibly be called off through truce talks.

Reopening of Allied Red negotiations at Panmunjom did not side track a Senate armed services subcommittee from its schedule calling for testimony today from former Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett and his assistant, W.J. McNeil.

Lovett and McNeil were asked to give their views in the Senate group's search for the persons and conditions some senators believe were responsible for a serious and sometimes critical lack of ammunition in the hands of American fighting men.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retired former U. S. Eighth Army commander, has testified he was unable to carry out even limited missions in Korea due to ammunition shortages.

Top military chiefs have said there were some shortages in ammunition reserve stocks but that Van Fleet had all he needed to carry out his mission. The full Senate Armed Services Committee has sided with Van Fleet on this issue.

Lovett's name was injected into the inquiry last month when Van Fleet read into the record a letter he received last Dec. 1 from Gen. Mark W. Clark, Far Eastern commander of United Nations forces.

In this letter, Clark said: "I have just received a personal letter from Secretary Lovett which contains the first firm indication that our ammunition supply situation is fully appreciated in Washington and that positive action is being initiated to speed up production to meet your requirements."

There has been some speculation that Taft, the GOP leader in the Senate, was not enthusiastic about Hall, who has been endorsed by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Taft has said whomever Eisenhower wants for the job should be named without a fight.

The committee is scheduled to meet here Friday to name a successor to C. Wesley Roberts, who resigned.

Hall, a former member of the House and now a surrogate, or judge of wills and estates, in Nassau County, indicated after a call on President Eisenhower Saturday he would accept the job if it is offered to him.
